

Department of History of Art & Architecture

Concentration: HAA

The major requires 11 courses in History of Art & Architecture, at least five of which must be at the CAS AH 300 level or above (including at least one seminar at the CAS AH 400 or 500 level). A grade of C is the minimum acceptable for credit toward the Art History concentration.

Consult the Bulletin for more information: <http://www.bu.edu/academics/cas/programs/art-history/ba/>

All History of Art & Architecture majors must take the following courses:

- CAS AH 111 Introduction to Art History I: Antiquity to the Middle Ages
Aesthetic Exploration/Historical Consciousness
- CAS AH 112 Introduction to Art History II: Renaissance to Today
Aesthetic Exploration/Historical Consciousness

- Two of the four survey courses:

AH 215 (African)

Aesthetic Exploration/Global Citizenship and Intercultural Literacy/Critical Thinking

AH 220 (Islamic)

Aesthetic Exploration/Global Citizenship and Intercultural Literacy/Research and Information Literacy

AH 225 (Asian)

Aesthetic Exploration/Historical Consciousness/ Research and Information Literacy

AH 242 (Latin American)

Aesthetic Exploration/Historical Consciousness

- Seven additional courses in History of Art & Architecture
  - Five of which must be at the CAS AH 300 level or above (including at least one seminar at the CAS AH 400 or 500 level)
  - At least one course covering materials from each of these four groups:

Group A

Ancient

Medieval

Group B

Asian

African

Islamic

Group C

Renaissance

Baroque/18th Century

Group D

19th Century

20th Century America

Latin American

Majors in History of Art & Architecture are encouraged to take courses in related areas such as archaeology, classics, philosophy, history, religion, and literature.

Opportunities exist for dual majors or major/minor combinations and are encouraged for those who wish to pursue an interdisciplinary liberal arts education. Each student works closely and regularly with his or her chosen advisor in developing a coherent and meaningful program of study suited to his or her needs and interests.

Note that the Advanced Placement test does not replace any of the requirements for the major.

(HUB Areas included above for Freshman who begin coursework in Fall 2018)